FAMILY OF

This genealogy of the family of William and Rebecca (Dixon) Marshill has been limited to three generations (their children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren) because the compiler lacked the time and facilities for the collection of later records. It is believed that readers will have little difficulty in picking up their own lines and carrying them on as far as they wish.

William Marshill, his son, Thomas Marshill and his grandson, Miles Marshill, all in the compiler's direct line of descent, contracted marriages in the Hadley, Chapman and Jones families, respectively. Some account of each of these families will be found following the Marshill genealogical material.

This compilation undoubtedly has errors and omissions. Each reader is urged to report such as may come to his notice to the undersigned for use in the preparation of a revised and perhaps larger edition.

MARCHILL.

John and William Marchill came to North Carolina shortly after 1750 and were members of Cane Creek Meeting (Quaker) for more than 30 and 50 years, respectively. According to the birth records of Cane Creek Monthly Meeting they were sons of Jacob and Ann Marshill and were born in County Tyrone, Ireland; John about 1720 and William about 8th Mo. 1724.

Jacob Marshill and Ann Griffith, both of Grange near Charlemont, were married at Grange Meeting, 9 Mo. 19, 1718. (Minutes of Ulster Province Meeting).

Records of the family history prior to the coming to Cane Creek are meager. The will of Ann Marshill, and the inventory and accounts of her estate, filed in the Chester County Court at West Chester, Pa., are the principal sources of information. The will is dated 30th of 9th month, 1729, and was probated Feb. 10, 1729/30. It describes Ann as a widow, late from Ireland, now of New Garden Township, Chester County, and names her two sons, John and William. The accounts of the estate mention the names of her father, John Griffith, and her brother, Christopher Griffith. (See pages 52, 53, 54).

John and Christopher Griffith were received as members of New Garden Monthly Meeting, Chester County, Pa., 12 Mo. 28, 1729, on presentation of a certificate, dated 2 Mo. 18, 1729, from Grange Meeting, near Charlemont, Ireland. No record of the issuance of this certificate has been found in Ireland. No mention of a certificate for Jacob Marshill and his family has been found, either in Ireland or in Pennsylvania. There is, however, record of a certificate for Solomon Shepherd which throws some light on the coming of Jacob Marshill. In the minutes of Grange Meeting held the 22 of 6th month, 1729, there is an item stating that "Solomon Shepard ye younger" had transported himself to America as an apprentice with Jacob Marshill and desired a certificate. The certificate was signed 8 Mo. 1, 1729, and was presented and accepted at New Garden Monthly Meeting 11 Mo. 30, 1730-1. It is probable that John and Christopher Griffith obtained their certificate before leaving Ireland and that they left for America shortly afterward, accompanied by Jacob and Ann Marshill and their two sons and Solomon Shepherd. Since Ann Marshill was a widow before the end of 1729, Jacob died on the way over or soon after arrival. One item in the inventory of Ann's estate refers to a servant man, sold to Francis Hobson for £6. This fits in with the information gained from the Irish record that Jacob brought an apprentice with him. It is possible that Jacob and Ann also brought a certificate of membership from Grange Meeting which was never presented to New Garden Monthly Meeting because of their early deaths. The marriages of the sons were authorized by the meeting, indicating that they were regarded as members, but nothing has been found to show how they acquired their rights of membership.

Ann Marshill's place of residence at the time of the execution of her will is stated as New Garden Township, Chester County. The date of the will is 30th of ninth month, 1729. In the Old Style calendar the ninth month was November. Therefore, only ten weeks elapsed between the date of execution of the will and its probate on the 10th of February, 1729/30. The accounts of the estate state that Ann was sick for thirteen weeks, indicating that the will was executed while she was on her death bed. Further evidence that her last illness occurred at New Garden is found in the direction, contained in the will, that she be buried in New Garden Burial Ground.

There is evidence, however, that the place of settlement on arrival in America was not at New Garden but on Pequea Creek, in Lancaster County, about 25 miles distant. Items in the accounts of Ann's estate refer to sundry journeys to Christiana Bridge before and after her death, and to a charge for bringing her goods from Pequa. Christiana is in Lancaster County, not far from Pequea Creek. It is known that John and Christopher Griffith owned land on Pequea Creek, in Salisbury Township. Hazard's Register of Pennsylvania, Vol. 5, page 21, gives the information that Lancaster County was established in the year 1729, out of part of Chester County; and that, during the year, a large number of Irish and Welsh immigrants settled at Pequa.

The name of Ann Marshall's mother, wife of John Griffith, is unknown. No mention of her being found in Pennsylvania records, it is presumed that she died in Ireland. The parentage of Jacob Marshall is unknown. In the marriage certificate of his elder son, he is called Jacob Marshall, Junr. This may mean that his father's name was Jacob. If so, perhaps his parents were Jacob Marshall and Margaret Edwards, married 8 Mo. 1685. Margaret Marshall, wife of Jacob, of Grange Meeting near Charlemont, died 1 Mo. 23, 1739. Jacob Marshall died 5 Mo. 1, 1743. Jacob Marshall was active in the affairs of Grange Meeting from 1685 to 1739 at least. He is mentioned in the book of distraints for tithes in 1696 and frequently afterwards. In 1728 a testimony of disownment was signed by two Jacob Marshills.

John Marshall married Ruth Hadly, daughter of Joshua and Mary, 8 Mo. 14, 1742, at New Garden Meeting. William Marshall married Rebecca Dixon, daughter of Thomas and Hannah, 3 Mo. 28, 1746, at Hockessin Meeting. Ruth Hadly and Rebecca Dixon were first cousins, both being grand-daughters of Simon and Ruth Hadly of New Garden Meeting. Both couples removed to Augusta Co., Virginia, thence to Cane Creek, N. C. Each couple became the parents of eleven children as shown by the Cane Creek birth records. John Marshall died 8 Mo. 3, 1787; Ruth died 3 Mo. 29, 1812; William died 5 Mo. 28, 1803; Rebecca died 2 Mo. 19, 1803.

New Garden Meetinghouse is located in New Garden Township, Chester County, Pa., just two or three miles north of the circular Delaware line. Hockessin Meetinghouse is on the other side of the line in New Castle County, Delaware. Cane Creek Meetinghouse, in Alamance County, N. C., is located near the village of Snow Camp. The name New Garden, was given by the Irish Friends to their new home in Pennsylvania, in remembrance of New Garden Meeting, in County Carlow, Ireland. Later, the name was carried by migrating Friends to North Carolina and to Ohio, Indiana and Iowa.

During the first half of the two and one half centuries for which we have any records, the family name appears to have usually been written

Marshall rather than Marshall. In Ireland and Pennsylvania both forms are found in the records, with indications that Marshall was used by the family but that recording clerks sometimes changed the spelling to Marshall. At Cane Creek and other meetings in North Carolina and in Tennessee, Marshall was the generally accepted form in the records as well as in writings by members of the family. Twenty five or more signatures written by members of the family between 1728 and 1815 have been examined either in the original or photographic reproduction. The spelling is Marshall in every case. In the earliest records of Springfield Monthly Meeting, Indiana, of which several of the family were members from the time of its organization in 1820, both forms are used with, perhaps, Marshall predominating. The latest use of Marshall that has come to the notice of the writer is in the signature of a member of the family written in Indiana in 1847. It is believed that most individuals changed to the present form at an earlier date.

QUAKERS IN IRELAND

Dr. Albert Cook Myers in "Immigration of the Irish Quakers into Pennsylvania" (Swarthmore, Pa., 1902) says:

"The converts to Quakerism in Ireland were drawn almost exclusively from the English and Scotch Protestants. Most of them had previously been in membership with other non-conforming denominations, such as the Baptists, Independents, and Presbyterians, although some few had been members of the Church of England."

"The principles of Friends in early days found little acceptance with the Celtic-Irish, nor has the Society acquired much increase in after years from that source. For, aside from race differences and antipathies, arising from the English plantation system, the Irish almost to a man were Catholics, and as Beck says: 'It seems to need the passing through the various stages of non-conformity, before a Catholic can appreciate the doctrinal views of Friends.'

"Although the statement of Joyce and Prendergast, that Cromwellian settlers were absorbed by the Irish in two generations, may be true to a large extent of the other Protestants, it is, I believe, by reason of the strict church discipline which obtained, but slightly true of those who remained in the Society of Friends. Apropos of this, John Grubb Richardson (1813-1890), a prominent and representative Irish Friend, says of his family: 'We were members of the Society of Friends, our forefathers having been convinced by the preaching of William Edmundson in 1660. All our ancestors came from the north of England in Cromwell's army, and received grants of land from him to settle in Ireland.'

"We may safely say that the great majority of the Quakers in Ireland were English, or of English descent. Long after the Cromwellian Settlement, and well into the first half of the eighteenth century, Quaker colonists continued to come from England. Some of these were members when they arrived, and others became members after their settlement. The certificates of removal which the Irish Friends brought to Pennsylvania show that many of the emigrants were natives of England and had lived but a few years in Ireland. It is especially interesting to note that so many of these early Irish Friends had been officers and soldiers in Cromwell's 'New Model', and that the same splendid zeal and courage shown at Naseby and Worcester, but now directed in a peaceful cause, contributed so largely to the upbuilding of Quakerism in the Nation."

Dr. Myers estimates that between 1500 and 2000 Irish Friends came to Pennsylvania between 1682 and 1750. County Armaugh in the Province of Ulster sent more than any other county. Dublin Meeting sent more than any other meeting; then comes Grange Meeting,* in a country district near Charlemont, County Armaugh, followed by Ballynacree, an obscure county meeting near Ballymoney, County Antrim.

"The Friends from Ulster and those from Leinster, with the exception of Dublin, were almost wholly from the country districts. Some few were tradespeople, but the majority were yeomen or farmers, and when they came to Pennsylvania, they bought farms and engaged in agriculture. The Quaker colonists from Munster, on the other hand, were nearly all tradesmen from the cities and towns. They, with the emigrants from Dublin, settled for the most part in Philadelphia."

*This meeting, from which the Marshalls and Hinshaws came, was called Grange near Charlemont in the early days. Later, it became known as Grange near Moy, or Dungannon, County Tyrone.

WILLIAM AND REBECCA (DIXON) MARSHILL

William Marshill, son of Jacob and Ann (Griffith) Marshill, was born in County Tyrone, Ireland, about 8th month, 1724. Rebecca Dixon, daughter of Thomas and Hannah (Hadly) Dixon, was born in New Castle County, Pennsylvania, (now Delaware) 13th of 1st Mo. 1731. (Records of Cane Creek Monthly Meeting, N. C.) William Marshill and Rebecca Dixon were married at Hockessin Meetinghouse, New Castle County, Delaware, 28th of 3rd Mo. 1746. (Records of Newark Monthly Meeting, Pa.). It will be noted that at the time of her marriage, Rebecca had just passed her fifteenth birthday.

Within a month after his marriage William Marshill applied to New Garden Monthly Meeting, Pa., for a certificate to remove to Virginia. He settled in Augusta County, which at that time embraced all of Virginia west of the Blue Ridge with the exception of a small area in the northwest corner, the whole of the present state of West Virginia except three or four counties in the north east corner, a portion of the present western Pennsylvania including Pittsburgh, most of Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, part of Michigan and all of Kentucky. No record has been found to show in what part of this large area William and Rebecca made their home. It is known, however, that William's brother, John Marshill, and several of Rebecca's relatives lived for a time in the area that is now Botetourt County, Va., then a part of Augusta County. The first child of William and Rebecca was born in Augusta County, 4th of 1st Mo. 1747. Their second and third children were born in Augusta County, 4th of 1st Mo. 1749, and 10th of 8th Mo. 1751, respectively. On the 2nd of 12th Mo. 1752, William presented a certificate at Cane Creek Monthly Meeting, N. C., and he and his family were received as members.

By deed dated 12th of 1st Mo. 1764, William Marshill and Rebecca, his wife, transferred 26 acres of land on Cane Creek, adjoining Simon Dixon's mill dam, to Peter Stut, Benjamin Piggott, William Piggott and David Vestal as trustees, for the use and benefit of Cane Creek Meeting. This original deed is preserved in the vault at Guilford College, N. C.

A petition addressed to Josiah Martin, Governor of the Province, under date of 7th of 11th Mo. 1772, bears the signatures of William Marshill and twenty three other members of the meeting. This petition is preserved in the files of the North Carolina Historical Commission at Raleigh.

Rebecca Marshill was appointed an elder of Cane Creek Meeting, 7th of 6th Mo. 1788. She died 19th of 2nd Mo. 1803. William died 28th of 5th Mo. 1803. His will, dated 24th of 3rd Mo. 1803 and proved at the August Term of Chatham County Court, 1803, bequeathed the home plantation and personal estate thereon to the oldest son, John Marshill. Bequests of 20 shillings were made to each of his other living children, Thomas Marshill, Ruth Hinshaw, Deborah Hobson, Rebecca Hinshaw, Ann Davis, William Marshill, Emy Hobson and Dinah Hobson, and 20 shillings to the heirs of his daughter, Hannah Nandenhall, deceased. This will is on file at the Chatham County Court House, Pittsboro, N. C.

William and Rebecca Marshill were the parents of eleven children, as follows. Dates and places of birth are from the records of Cane Creek Monthly Meeting.

1. Hannah Marshill, born 1 Mo. 4, 1747, in Augusta County, Va., was married at Cane Creek Meetinghouse 11 Mo. 5, 1771, to Mordecai Mendenhall, son of Mordecai and Charity (Beeson) Mendenhall, who was born 3 Mo. 20, 1747. The family were members of New Garden and Deep River Monthly Meetings until about 1792, when they removed to Tennessee. Hannah died at Lost Creek 2 Mo. 15, 1802. Mordecai married as his second wife, 10 Mo. 26, 1803, at Lost Creek Meetinghouse, Eleanor Sumner, widow of William Sumner, and daughter of Manuel Edwards. The remainder of the estate was to be divided between his sisters, Ruth Hinshaw, Rebecca Hinshaw, Ann Davis, Emy Hobson, Dinah Hobson and the children of deceased sisters, Hannah Mendenhall and Deborah Hobson. The will is on file at the Chatham County Court House, Pittsboro, N. C.

The membership of Thomas and wife and two children was transferred from Cane Creek to Deep River Monthly Meeting in 1784. The family continued in membership at Deep River (Muddy Creek Preparative) until 1795, when they obtained a certificate to New Hope Monthly Meeting, Tennessee. When Lost Creek Monthly Meeting was established in 1797 they were living in Knox County, within the limits of the new meeting. In 1815 Thomas and Ann and seven children (four of whom were married and had families) removed to Wayne County, Indiana. The names and birth dates of their seven children are given in the records of Lost Creek Monthly Meeting.

2. John Marshall, born 1 Mo. 4, 1849, in Augusta County, Va., and died 4 Mo. 13, 1815, at Cane Creek. He was never married. His will, dated 3 Mo. 9, 1815, bequeathed the home plantation and his wearing apparel to his brothers, Thomas and William. The remainder of the estate was to be divided between his sisters, Ruth Hinshaw, Rebecca Hinshaw, Ann Davis, Emy Hobson, Dinah Hobson and the children of deceased sisters, Hannah Mendenhall and Deborah Hobson. The will is on file at the Chatham County Court House, Pittsboro, N. C.

3. Thomas Marshill, born 8 Mo. 10, 1751, in Augusta County, Va., was married at Rocky River Meetinghouse, 1 Mo. 14, 1778, to Ann Chapman, daughter of Thomas & Margaret (Mitchell) Chapman, who was born in Bucks Co., Pa., 7 Mo. 17, 1752. The membership of Thomas and wife and two children was transferred from Cane Creek to Deep River Monthly Meeting in 1784. The family continued in membership at Deep River (Muddy Creek Preparative) until 1795, when they obtained a certificate to New Hope Monthly Meeting, Tennessee. When Lost Creek Monthly Meeting was established in 1797 they were living in Knox County, within the limits of the new meeting. One of the first acts of Lost Creek Monthly Meeting was to grant the request of "Friends inhabiting about Thomas Marshills' in the head of the Grassy Valley for the privilege of holding meeting among themselves on every First Day except the one in each month after the Monthly Meeting." The meeting was called Grassy Valley meeting. Thomas and Ann Marshall were appointed overseers and later were made elders.

The Grassy Valley is said to have been located on the north side of the Holston River, about 18 miles west of Lost Creek meeting house and six or eight miles north-east of Knoxville.

In 1815 the entire family, consisting at that time of Thomas and Ann, two married sons with their wives and children, two married daughters with their husbands and children, and three unmarried sons, were granted certificates of removal from Lost Creek to White Water Monthly Meeting, at Richmond, Indiana. Thomas and Ann entered a quarter section of land two miles northeast of the present town of Economy, Wayne County, Indiana, and made it their home. Their married sons and daughters established homes in the same locality. When Springfield Monthly Meeting was established in 1821, Thomas Marshall was chosen to serve as elder. A memorandum left by his grandson, Thomas Marshall (d1, below) states that Thomas died late in the fall of 1833. Thomas had transferred the home place to his son, Jacob Marshall, in 1831. Since Ann is not mentioned in the deed, it is presumed that she died at an earlier date.

Thomas and Ann Marshall raised a family of seven children. The birth records of Cane Creek Monthly Meeting state that the two older children were born in Guilford County, N. C. If the certificate to New Hope fixes the approximate date of removal, four others were born in North Carolina and only the youngest in Tennessee. The birth dates of all seven are given in the records of Lost Creek Monthly Meeting, but places of birth are not noted.

HADLEY

William Marshill, son Jacob and Ann Marshill, married Rebecca Dixon, daughter Thomas and Hannah Dixon, and grand-daughter of Simon and Ruth Hadly, at Hockessin Meetinghouse, Delaware, 3 Mo. 28, 1746.

Simon Hadly came from Ireland about 1712 and settled in the edge of New Castle County, now in the state of Delaware, near the line of New Garden Township, Chester County, Pennsylvania. At Newark MM (now Kennet) held at Centre Meetinghouse (near Centreville, Del.) 4th of 6th Mo. (August, O.S.) 1716, he produced a certificate from Moate Monthly Meeting in the county of West Meath and nation of Ireland which was read and accepted.

James Miller of New Garden Township by deed of 26 of 10 Mo. 1717, conveyed six acres of land to Simon Hadly, James Starr, Thomas Jackson and Michael Lightfoot as trustees, for the use of New Garden Meeting of Friends.

In 1718 Newark Monthly Meeting was divided and New Garden Monthly Meeting established composed of the meetings of New Garden, Nottingham and Londongrove, which meet once a month for the transaction of business.

Simon Hadly was an active member of the meeting and was often appointed on committees for various services. 5 Mo. 28, 1733, he was appointed an overseer for New Garden Meeting in place of Isaac Jackson.

He purchased 1000 acres of land, partly in New Garden Township, Chester County, Pa., but mostly in Mill Creek Hundred, New Castle County, Del. A house built by Simon Hadly, on his land in Mill Creek Hundred, in 1717, is still standing (1935). It is about one half mile south of Southwood Station on the Landenburg Branch of the Baltimore and Ohio Railway. It stands on a hill, some distance back from the highway, on the right hand side as you drive in a southeasterly direction from the station. An old stone barn, also built by Simon Hadly, stands near the house. He was commissioned a Justice of the Peace and of the Court of Common Pleas and Orphan's Court, for New Castle County, July 25, 1726, and by reappointment continued in commission probably until his death.

Joseph Hadly married 8 Mo. 25, 1721, Enoy (Amy) Gregg at Center Meeting. Deborah Hadly " 4 " 20, 1721, Benjamin Fred at New Garden.

Ruth Hadly, wife Simon, died 13th of 12th Mo. 1750/1 and was buried on the 20th in New Garden burying ground. Simon died before 4th Mo. 24, 1755, on which date New Garden Meeting offered Aaron Musgrave as overseer in place of Simon Hadly, deceased. Tradition says that he was murdered by a hired man who sought to get the money he kept about him. He had married, 7 Mo. 22, 1752, as his second wife, Phoebe Buffington, widow of Richard, and daughter of John and Frances Grubb.

In a will dated 3rd November, 1755, which is on file at Wilmington, Delaware, Simon Hadly mentions his wife, Phoebe, his sons, Joseph and Joshua, daughters, Deborah Howel, Ruth Lindley and Katherine Johnson, sons-in-law, Jacob Howel, Thomas Lindley and Robert Johnson, daughter, Hannah Stanfield, widow of John Stanfield, daughter, Anne Gregg, widow of Richard Gregg, nephew, Thomas Kiernan, wife's children, John Buffington, Richard Buffington, Phoebe Wall, Peter Buffington, Isaac Buffington and Joseph Buffington; grand-children, John Hadley, Elizabeth Thompson, wife of James Thompson, Deborah Curle, wife of John Curle, Hannah Curle, wife of Samuel Curle, all of them children of his son, Joseph Hadley; grand-children, Ruth Marshall, wife of John Marshall, Thomas Hadley, Sarah Fred, wife of Joseph Fred, Mary Hadley, Jeremiah Hadley, Joshua Hadley, Jr., Simon Hadley, Joseph Hadley, Jr., Deborah Hadley, Hannah Hadley, Catherine Hadley, all of them children of his son, Joshua Hadley; grandchildren, Simon Dixon, Rebecca Marshall, wife William Marshall, Ruth Dixon, John Stanfield, Jr., Thomas Stanfield, Samuel Stanfield, all of them children of his daughter, Hannah Stanfield, widow and relict of John Stanfield, departed; grandchildren, Catherine Lindley, James Lindley, Simon Lindley, Ruth Lindley, Mary Lindley, Elenor Lindley, John Lindley, William Lindley, Thomas Lindley, Jr., Deborah Lindley, all of them children of his daughter Ruth Lindley, wife of Thomas Lindley; grandchildren, Simon Johnson, Hannah Taylor, wife Joseph Taylor, Caleb Johnson, John Johnson, Freeman Johnson, Jonathan Johnson, Isaac Johnson, all of them children of his daughter, Katherine Johnson, wife Robert Johnson; grandchildren, Simon Gregg, Sarah Smith Gregg, Jacob Gregg, Ruth Gregg, William Gregg, Mirriam Gregg, Deborah Gregg, Phoebe Gregg, all of them children of his daughter Ann Gregg, widow and relict of Richard Gregg, departed.

The will disposed of about $15,000 in money and several hundred acres of land; quite a fortune for that day.

Joshua Hadly, son of Simon, appears to have lived at Mill Creek Hundred at least for several years. About the close of 1735, he married as his second wife, Patience Brown, daughter Jeremiah and Mary Brown. She was born 5 Mo.

25, 1712. The marriage being by a "priest" (minister) he was disowned by New Garden Monthly Meeting 2 Mo. 24, 1736. Patience was a member of Nottingham MM from which she (having made an acknowledgement for her offense) was given a certificate recommending her to New Garden in 1737. This certificate was received at New Garden 5 Mo. 30, 1737. In 1748 Joshua Hadley bought 400 acres of land in Augusta (now Botetourt) County, Virginia, and it is thought that he removed from Pennsylvania to Virginia about that time. In 1750 and 1751 he purchased several other tracts. After a few years in Virginia, perhaps about 1755, he moved on South, to Orange County, N. C. On 7 Mo. 31, 1756, it was represented at New Garden that Patience Hadley, having been removed for some time, now writes for a certificate to Friends of Cane Creek in North Carolina. At the next meeting, 2 Mo. 28, a certificate was signed for her and her children but the latter are not named. It is said that Joshua died in 1760. His wife, Patience, died 5 Mo. 23, 1783, according to the records of Cane Creek Monthly Meeting.

Ruth Hadley, daughter Joshua, of Mill Creek Hundred was married to John Marshall, 8 Mo. 14, 1742. She was born at Mill Creek Hundred about 1726. He was born in County Tyrone, Ireland, about 1720. They removed to Augusta Co., Va., and then to North Carolina.

Hannah Hadley, daughter Simon and Ruth Hadley, was born in Ireland, 11 Mo. 16, 1709/10. She was married, 8 Mo. 25, 1727, at New Garden Meeting, to Thomas Dixon, son William. In his will dated 1 Mo. 31, 1708, (proved Sept. 20, 1708) William Dixon, weaver by trade, styled himself as of Red Clay Creek. A survey of 307 acres of land was made for him in Christiana Hundred, New Castle County. His wife was Ann or Anne, daughter of William Gregg who is believed to have come from Ireland and who took 400 acres in Christiana Hundred by warrant dated 26 December, 1684. William Dixon was the son of Henry Dixon. Children of William and Ann (Gregg) Dixon were: Henry, married Ruth Jones; William, married Hannah Hollingsworth; Dinah, married William

C. This certificate, signed 10 Mo. 6, 1753, was received at Cane Creek MM, 4 Mo. 6, 1754. John Stanfield did not live long after removing to North Carolina as Hannah was a widow when her father wrote his will, 3 November, 1755. Hannah Stanfield died 5 Mo. 31, 1783.

Rebecca Dixon, daughter of Thomas and Hannah, was married at Hockessin Meeting, 3 Mo. 28, 1746, to William Marshall, son Jacob and Ann. She was born in New Castle County, 1 Mo. 13, 1731. He was born in County Tyrone, Ireland, about 8 Mo. 1724. Shortly after marriage they removed to Augusta County, Virginia, where their first child was born 1 Mo. 4, 1747. On 12 Mo. 2, 1752, William Marshall presented a certificate at Cane Creek MM, N. C. By deed dated 1 Mo. 12, 1764, William Marshall and Rebecca, his wife, transferred 26 acres of land on Cane Creek, adjoining Simon Dixon's mill dam, to Peter Stout, Benjamin Piggott, William Piggott and David Westal, as trustees, for the use and benefit of Cane Creek Meeting. This original deed is preserved in the vault at Guilford College, N. C.

CHAPMAN

Thomas Marshill, son William and Rebecca Marshill, married Ann Chapman, daughter Thomas and Margaret Chapman, at Rocky River Meetinghouse, North Carolina, (Cane Creek Monthly Meeting) 1 Mo. 14, 1778.

John Chapman was a native of Stanghah, in the Parish of Skelton, Yorkshire, England, having been born there in 1626. He sailed for America in the Ship Shield of Stockton, Daniel Tows, master, on the longest day of the year 1684, with his wife, Jane, and children, Mara, Ann, John and another daughter who died on the way over. After a tempestuous voyage, during which the ship was all but lost, they succeeded in reaching the Virginia Capes, landed in Maryland and migrated overland to Bucks County, Pennsylvania.

John Chapman was a convert to the principles and faith of Friends as early as 1656, and suffered imprisonment and other persecutions for his religion. He was confined in York Castle for eight weeks in 1660 and had goods seized several times thereafter in payment of fines for attending non-conformist meetings. These persecutions had much to do with his decision to come to America. He brought a certificate from the monthly meeting at Stannah. On the reverse side was an indorsement, dated 8 Mo. 10, 1684, and signed by the master and passengers on the Ship Shield, stating that he and his family had been sober, of good carriage and peacable behavior, etc., during the time of their association together.

He married, first, on 10 Mo. 14, 1665, and had one daughter Ann, who died in childhood. His wife died 8 Mo. 2, 1668 and he married 4 Mo. 12, 1670, Jane Sadler of Lagenby, Yorkshire. To this marriage were born six children, four in Stanghah and two in Bucks County.

The family arrived in Bucks County toward the end of December, 1684, and took up their residence in the woods of Wrightstown, the first white settlers north of Newtown. They spent the first winter in a hastily constructed cave or dug-out. Here were born on 12 Mo (February) 12, 1684-85, twin sons who were given the names Abraham and Joseph. John Chapman died in 1694, his wife in 1699.

All the sons of John and Jane Chapman were prominently identified with public affairs in Bucks County and their descendants have held many places of public trust. Ann Chapman, daughter of John and Jane became a distinguished minister among Friends. She traveled as early as 1701 and in 1709 went to England to visit the Meetings there. The family added largely to the real estate originally held in Wrightstown and in 1720 the Chapmans owned nearly one half of the land in the township.

The first meeting of Friends was held at John Chapman's in 1686. Meetings were held at private houses until 1721. These early Friends were members of Middletown Monthly Meeting. In 1721 Falls Quarterly Meeting gave permission to Wrightstown to build a meetinghouse, which was erected on a four-acre lot the gift of John Chapman's children. Abraham Chapman, Richard Mitchell and Stephen Twining were appointed to take deeds to the land as trustees for Wrightstown Meeting. In 1734, Wrightstown was allowed a monthly meeting.

Middletown Monthly Meeting records give the following information regarding the family of John and Jane (Sadler) Chapman.

Marah Chapman, their daughter, born 2 Mo. 12, 1671.

Ann Chapman, " " " 3 Mo. 19, 1676.

John Chapman, " son " 11 Mo. 11, 1678.

Marah Chapman, daughter John and Jane, married John Croasdel, son Thomas and Agnes, 2 Mo. 28, 1697. After his death she married John Wildman. She had children by both marriages.

Ann Chapman, daughter John and Jane, married John Parsons. John Parsons presented a certificate from "Old England" at Middletown Monthly Meeting, 6 Mo. 2, 1716. On 3 Mo. 2, 1717 this meeting authorized his marriage to Ann Chapman. She died 10th Mo. 9, 1732.

John Chapman, son John and Jane, died 4 Mo. 9, 1743, aged 65 years. At the age of 61 he had married Ruth Wilkinson. They had one child, John, who became a physician.

Joseph Chapman, son John and Jane, married (1) Mary Worth, daughter of Joseph and Mary, in 9 Mo. 1715, at Stony Brook. Mary Chapman died 5 Mo. 24, 1727, and was buried at Wrightstown Meetinghouse. Joseph Chapman married (2) Mary Wilkinson, daughter of John and Mary, 6 Mo. 6, 1730. He died in 1752, aged 67 years and was buried between his two wives. In his will, dated 7 Mo. 6, 1746, proved March 13, 1752, he mentioned his son, Isaac, daughters, Sarah Wilkinson and Ann Chapman, and youngest daughters, Mary, Jane and Margaret Chapman.

Abraham Chapman, son John and Jane (Sadler) Chapman, married in 1715, Susanna Olden, daughter William Olden, Bound Brook, N. J. He was a Justice of the Peace, frequently presiding at Courts as President. He was elected to the Legislature for near twenty years and was a useful member of society. He served as an elder of Wrightstown Meeting from 1724 until his death which occurred 2 Mo. 23, 1755.

Wrightstown Monthly Meeting records have the following data concerning the children of Abraham and Susanna (Olden) Chapman.

	Born	Died
John	6 Mo. 23, 1716
Abraham	4 Mo. 4, 1718
William	12 Mo. 24, 1719/20	8 Mo. 3, 1810
A Daughter	2 Mo. 26, 1722
Jane	3 Mo. 2, 1723; married John Lacey
Thomas	4 Mo. 8, 1725
Benjamin	9 Mo. 10, 1727	6 Mo. 14, 1813
Elisabeth	3 Mo. 20, 1730
Joseph	8 Mo. 28, 1732	8 Mo. 1790

These children of Abraham and Susanna Chapman married as follows.

John married Mary, daughter of Stephen and Margaret (Mitchell) Twining, about 1740.

Abraham married Elizabeth Briggs.

William married Jane, daughter of John Penquite.

Jane married John Lacey. They were the parents of Gen. John Lacey.

Thomas married Margaret, daughter of Richard and Alice (Shires) Mitchell about 1748.

Elizabeth married Richard Mason of Philadelphia.

Joseph married Ann Fell.

Benjamin never married.

Abraham Chapman's will dated Jan. 9, 1752, proved March 21, 1755, names as executors his wife, Susanna, and sons, John and Abraham. Mentions sons, William, Thomas, Joseph and Benjamin, and daughters, Jane Lacey and Elizabeth Chapman. He bequeathed a tract of land at Tchicken to the five last mentioned.

Thomas Chapman, son Abraham and Susanna (Olden) Chapman, was born in Wrightstown Township, Bucks County, Pa., 4th Mo. (June) 8, 1725, according to the birth records of Wrightstown Monthly Meeting. Wrightstown Meeting was a member of Middletown Monthly Meeting until 1724, then of Buckingham Monthly Meeting until 1734. From 1734 to the present time Wrightstown has been a separate Monthly Meeting.

The exact date of the marriage of Thomas Chapman and Margaret Mitchell is not known as they were married out of meeting. On 7 Mo. 6, 1748, he made an acknowledgement for the offense, in Wrightstown Monthly Meeting. It is thought that the marriage took place only a short time before that date. They continued to live at Wrightstown until 1765, Thomas' name appearing as a witness to wills executed in Feb. 1751, Oct. 1758 and July 1761. Under date of third month, 5th 1765, the Wrightstown Monthly Meeting minutes records the granting of a certificate for Thomas Chapman to New Garden, Carolina. The records of Cane Creek Monthly Meeting, in North Carolina, say that he produced a certificate there, 2 Mo. 1, 1766, and that he obtained one to Pennsylvania, 9 Mo. 6, 1766. Wrightstown records state that a certificate was received, 2 Mo. 2, 1768, from Cane Creek Monthly Meeting, in North Carolina, for Thomas Chapman, wife and children, Alice, Anne, Thomas and Miles.

In July, 1770, and again in February, 1771, Thomas Chapman signed as a witness to wills executed in Wrightstown. In April, 1775, he and his wife executed a deed conveying 62 acres of land which Thomas had purchased from his daughters, Alice and Ann; and another deed conveying land which had been devised to him by his father, Abraham Chapman, in 1752. On 10 Mo. 11, 1775, Wrightstown Monthly Meeting granted certificates for Thomas Chapman, wife, Margaret, and son, Miles, and daughters, Alice and Ann, to Cane Creek Monthly Meeting, Orange County, N. C. These certificates were received at Cane Creek, 3 Mo. 2, 1776.

A manuscript history in the possession of the Bucks County Historical Society has this entry: "Thomas Chapman, son Abraham and Susanna (Olden) Chapman, born June 8, 1725, followed the business of surveying and conveyancing and held some offices in the County Seat. At about the age of 45 years he removed to South (sic) Carolina and from thence to Tennessee, where he acquired a large landed property and passed the remainder of his days much at his ease. Fishing and hunting had always been his delight and game being very scarce in his native place was a principal motive for his removing to places where it was plentiful."

Thomas Chapman acquired a farm of 250 acres on the South Fork of Rocky River, in Chatham County, N. C. The deed, dated 9 February, 1776, is in the possession of the present owner of the farm. It describes Thomas Chapman as a Surveyor, is written on parchment in his own hand, showing a very high degree of skill with the pen.

Miles Chapman and his wife, Mary Chapman, were disowned by Cane Creek Monthly Meeting, 1 Mo. 3, 1778, for accomplishing their marriage out of meeting. He was reinstated in membership 6 Mo. 3, 1780. Ann Chapman was married at Rocky River Meeting (one of the constituent meetings in Cane Creek Monthly Meeting) on 1 Mo. 14, 1778, to Thomas Marshall, son William and Rebecca (Dixon) Marshall. Thomas and Margaret Chapman, William and Rebecca Marshall, Miles and Mary Chapman, John, Jacob and Margaret Marshall signed the marriage certificate as witnesses. Alice Chapman was married out of meeting to Robert Dimmitt. She was disowned for this action, 12 Mo. 7, 1782. She was reinstated, 11 Mo. 4, 1797, and was granted a certificate transferring her membership to Lost Creek Monthly Meeting, Tennessee.

Thomas Chapman transferred his farm on the South Fork of Rocky River to Mincher Littler by deed dated 3 Mo. 26, 1782. This deed is also written in his own hand and, as did the earlier one, gives his occupation as a Surveyor. It is believed that the date of this deed marks the approximate date of the removal to Tennessee.

During the period of his residence in North Carolina, Thomas Chapman continued his occupation of surveyor and conveyancer, and was also a Justice of the Peace. As the sentiment of Friends at that time was against the holding of public office, he was complained of and a committee was appointed by Cane Creek Monthly Meeting to talk with him about the matter. He agreed to relinquish the office at the expiration of his commission, but failed to keep this promise, and was disowned 3 Mo. 6, 1779. He was restored to membership 7 Mo. 5, 1783. The objection to Friends holding office was based on the fact that they must take and administer the oath and would be called upon to assist in enforcing the draft, the laws against slaves, etc.

Cane Creek Monthly Meeting granted certificates to New Garden Monthly Meeting, 12 Mo. 6, 1783, for Thomas, Margaret and Miles Chapman. On 12 Mo. 1, 1792, similar certificates were issued to Westfield Monthly Meeting, N. C. (It was usual for Friends who removed to Tennessee in the early days to transfer their memberships to New Garden Monthly Meeting, which had jurisdiction for their memberships to New Garden Monthly Meeting, which had jurisdiction over the western territory. In 1791, New Garden Monthly Meeting directed that all its Tennessee members should be transferred to Westfield. In most cases the certificates transferring these memberships were issued by New Garden. For some reason which is not now apparent, the Chapman certificates were issued by Cane Creek.

During the colonial period the territory now constituting the State of Tennessee was a part of North Carolina. In 1784 this territory was ceded to the Congress of the United States, with the condition that jurisdiction should remain with the State of North Carolina until Congress accepted the cession. Without waiting for Congress to act, the residents of the Tennessee country (or perhaps only a faction of them) organized a form of government under the name of the State of Franklin. The Legislature met at Jonesboro early in March 1785. Thomas Chapman was elected Clerk of House of Commons. The Legislature addressed a memorial to the Congress of the United States asking admission into the Federal Union. This paper, bearing the signature of Thomas Chapman, is preserved in the Library of Congress at Washington. Another document addressed by the Legislature of the State of Franklin to the Governor of North Carolina, is in the files of the North Carolina Historical Commission at Raleigh. This paper also bears the signature of Thomas Chapman as Clerk of Commons. In 1786, no action having been taken on their petition for admission to the Union as a separate state, the Franklinites elected Thomas Chapman and Landon Carter to represent Washington County in the General Assembly of North Carolina. The anti-Franklin faction elected James Stewart and Richard White. The General Assembly referred the contest to the Committee of Privileges and Elections. The Committee reported in favor of Stewart and Waite and they were seated by unanimous vote.

Knox County, Tennessee, was established June 11, 1792. On July 17, 1792 at a meeting of the County Court, Thomas Chapman produced a commission from the Governor of the Territory, appointing him Register of Knox County. He held this office until October 10, 1803, when his resignation was accepted by the Court.

Thomas Chapman's will, written by his own hand, is on file at the Court House in Knoxville. It is dated 14 September, 1801, and was probated in Oct. 1804. It describes him as a Surveyor, of Knox County, Tennessee, and mentions wife, Margaret, son, Miles, grandson, Thomas (son of Miles) and daughters, Alice Dennit and Ann Marshall. The land records of Knox County indicate that he owned large tracts of land, aggregating several thousand acres, in the Grassy Valley, about 5 or 6 miles northeast of Knoxville. His son, Miles, and sons-in-law, Thomas Marshall and Robert Dismitt, had considerable holdings in the same area. These lands are described as being on both sides of Big Creek and both sides of Woods Creek - on the north side of the Holston River. Evidence which appears to be conclusive indicates that Loves Creek on present day maps is the same stream as that called Big Creek in the land records.

Margaret Chapman, relict of Thomas Chapman, died on Thursday, March 16, 1809, in the 81 year of her age, according to a notice published in Wilson's Knoxville Gazette, March 22, 1809.

Margaret Chapman was the daughter of Richard Mitchell of Wrightstown, Pennsylvania, by his second wife, Alice Shires, whom he married in 1714.

"The Mitchell's, early settlers of Middletown, were descendants of Henry Mitchell, Marsden Lane, Lancashire, England, carpenter by trade, who married Elizabeth Foulds 3 Mo. 6, 1675. Both were members of the Society of Friends and he was imprisoned for his religious conviction, 1685. On 12 Mo. 16, 1699, Maraden Monthly Meeting gave a certificate to Henry Mitchell, wife and four children; they embarked in the Britannica for Pennsylvania, and arrived in the Delaware August 25, after a voyage of fourteen weeks. The vessel was overcrowded and there was great sickness on board, fifty-six dying at sea and twenty after landing, among them Henry Mitchell and one son. The widow and three children settled near the head of tide water on Neshaminy, and Middletown has always been considered the home of the family. Of the children, Richard built and ran the grist mill in Wrightstown, and became a prominent man; the daughter, Margaret, married Stephen Twining; Henry married Sarah, a daughter of Richard Gove, of London. Elisabeth Mitchell, widow of Henry the immigrant, died in Middletown, where her death is recorded in the Meeting record." W.H.H. Davis, History of Bucks County, Vol. 1, page 131.

Richard Mitchell was a man of high standing. He was a Justice of the Peace for many years, a member of the Colonial Assembly and was much occupied with public business. He was an exemplary member of the Society of Friends and was a trustee and elder of Wrightstown Meeting. He was married three times. (1) In 1712 to Mary Wilner of Falls Meeting. (2) In 1714 to Alice Shires, daughter of John Shires, of Falls Meeting. (3) After 1746 to Agnes Warner, widow of Joseph Warner and daughter of John and Marah (Chapman) Croasdel.

Richard Mitchell died about 1759. In his will dated 5 Mo. 10, 1757, he mentioned his wife, Agnes, sons-in-law, Eldad Roberts and Joseph Watson, daughter, Margaret, wife of Thomas Chapman, and son-in-law, Miles Shires in Yorkshire, Great Britain. From this it appears that he had four daughters, but with the exception of Margaret, their names are unknown.

The material used in the preparation of the foregoing account of the Chapman and Mitchell families has been drawn largely from the following sources in addition to those mentioned in the text.

Notes.

An article entitled "Course of Bucks County in the Revolution" (Penna. Mag. of His. and Biog., Vol. 4, page 161) speaks of a Committee of Safety, organized January 16, 1755, with John Chapman, an Orthodox Quaker, for Clerk. It also states that John Lacey, Wrightstown Quaker, was the first to raise troops in the county for the Continental Army. This John Lacey was a nephew of Thomas Chapman. He rose to the rank of Brigadier-General.

The minutes of the Committee of Safety, (Penna. Mag. of Hist. and Biog. Vol. 15, page 257) indicate that John Chapman did not serve long as Clerk. Under date of July 21, 1755, the following entry is found. "John Wilkinson, Jonathan Ingham, Thomas Foulke and John Chapman, being of the people called Quakers and alledging scruples of Conscience relative to the business necessarily transacted by the Committee, desired to be relieved from any further attendance." They were relieved and a new Clerk was chosen.

Some writer has said that, during the revolution, Quakers were often branded as Tories and subjected to derision by their neighbors because of their conscientious scruples against warfare. Often they were bitterly opposed to the policies of the British Government and its dealings with the Colonies, but because of their religious convictions they could not approve of armed conflict as a means of settlement of the controversy.

"John Chapman, aged about 58 years, and Jane, his wife, about 42 years came from Stangnah, in the parish of Skelton, in the county of York, yeoman, came in the ship Sheild of Stockton, the Mr. Daniel Poos, arrived in Maryland in the beginning of the 8th Mo. 1684, and arrived in this river in the latter end of the same month. Children, Marah, born the 12th, 2nd Mo. 1671. Ann, born the 18th, 3rd Mo. 1676. John, born the 9th, 11Mo. 1679. Jane, his daughter, came at the same time and died at sea." From Registry of Arrivals in Bucks County, in Penna. Mag. of Hist. and Biog., Vol. 9, page 227.

JONES

Miles Marshill, son of Thomas and Ann Marshill, married Martha Jones, daughter of Jesse and Hannah Jones, at Grassy Valley Meetinghouse, Tennessee, (Lost Creek Monthly Meeting), 5 Mo. 31, 1810.

Isaac Jones and Esther Powel were married in Pennsylvania some time prior to 10 Mo. 21, 1758. Under that date the following items appear in the minutes of Warrington Monthly Meeting of Friends, held in York County, Pa.

Men's minutes: "Isaac Jones and Esther his wife appeared at this meeting and produced the following paper of acknowledgement viz. 'To the Monthly Meeting of Warrington to be held the 21st of 10 Mo 1758 Friends,- Whereas we have had our education amongst Friends, but for want of keeping to the guidance of truth in our own hearts we have slipt aside so far as to accomplish our marriage by a priest for which we are sorry and give this as a testimony against ourselves and all such disorderly practices and desire to be continued under Friends care which this meeting accepts and appoints John Griest to read it in a First Day Meeting at Huntingdon."

Women's minutes: "Esther Jones (alias Powell) appeared in this meeting and offered a paper condemning her outgoing in marriage which was read and accepted."

The direction that the paper of acknowledgement be read at Huntington indicates that Isaac and Esther were members of Huntington Meeting, one of the meetings subordinate to Warrington Monthly Meeting. Huntington was located near the present town of York Springs in Adams County. (Until 1800 a part of York County)

In 1762 Isaac and Esther Jones received a certificate from Warrington Monthly Meeting to remove to New Garden Monthly Meeting, North Carolina. This certificate was received at New Garden 9 Mo. 25, 1762. Later, they were members of Center Monthly Meeting, but there is no record of the transfer of membership. It is probable that they were set off from New Garden when Center Preparative Meeting became a Monthly Meeting in 1773. Names and birth dates of children of Isaac and Esther Jones appear in New Garden records as follows.

David Jones	born 12 Mo. 9, 1759.
Elizabeth Jones	" 8 Mo. 29, 1761.
Jesse Jones	" 8 Mo. 30, 1763.
Jean Jones	" 2 Mo. 28, 1765.
Isaac Jones	" 8 Mo. 14, 1767.

Warrington Monthly Meeting records fail to disclose the parentage of Isaac Jones and Esther Powel or whence they came. There is no record of their reception as members, so it must be presumed that they were among those who constituted the original membership when Warrington was set off from Sadsbury Monthly Meeting in 1747, but no mention of them has been found in Sadsbury records.

John, Ann and Esther Powel were witnesses at the marriage of Samuel Hutton and Mary Wright in 1753. (John Powel, son Thomas Powel of Huntington Township, York County, was married at New Garden Meeting, Pa., 3 Mo. 1, 1750, to Ann Todd, daughter of John Todd. An Elizabeth Powel was a witness at this marriage). When Isaac and Esther Jones were granted their certificate of removal from Warrington to New Garden Monthly Meeting, N. C. in 1762, certificates were also granted to Elizabeth Powel and to Ann Powel and children. The women's minutes state that Ann Powel was removing with her husband. (John Powel had been disowned by Warrington Monthly Meeting in 1761).

The Powels and Jones' owned land on Pole Cat Creek, Guilford County, N. C. Thomas Powel acquired a tract of 302 acres in 1762. One half of this land was deeded to Isaac Jones, 14 January, 1767; the other half to John Powel, 17 October, 1768. Elizabeth Powel is mentioned as joining with her husband, Thomas Powel, in the 1768 deed. John Powel sold his share to Aaron Coffin, 14 July, 1784. Ann Powel joined with her husband in making the deed and Isaac Jones signed as a witness. Isaac Jones deeded his part of the land to Henry Hendrix, 4 October, 1796. Jesse Jones owned land on Pole Cat Creek which he sold in 1794 and 1795.

Isaac and Esther Jones, John and Ann Powel were witnesses at the marriage of Susanna Powel, daughter of John and Ann, 8 Mo. 21, 1777, at Center Meeting.

Jesse Jones, son of Isaac and Esther, married Hannah Frazier. They were married out of meeting so the exact date of marriage is unknown. The date of the marriage bond is 13 August 1786. The parentage of Hannah (Frazier) Jones is not known to an absolute certainty but it is thought she was the daughter of James and Martha (Millikan) Fraizer of Center Meeting, who had a daughter, Hannah, born 4 Mo. 10, 1769. Since the minutes of Center Monthly Meeting are lost there is no record of the action taken against Jesse and Hannah Jones because of their marriage contrary to discipline. That they retained their membership (or regained them later if disowned) is shown by the fact that they were received at Lost Creek Monthly Meeting, Tennessee, in 1797 on certificate from Center Monthly Meeting. Lost Creek minutes record the acceptance of certificates for Jesse and Hannah Jones and their children, Jane, James, Isaac and Martha, and for Isaac and Esther Jones. All these certificates were from Center Monthly Meeting.

In Tennessee, Isaac and Esther Jones, Jesse and Hannah Jones and children lived in Knox County, in the Grassy Valley, a few miles north-east of Knoxville. They were members of Grassy Valley Meeting - one of the meetings subordinate to Lost Creek Monthly Meeting.

Lost Creek Monthly Meeting birth and death records have the following items referring to the family.

Lydia " 7 " 17, 1800; " James Price.
Jesse " 12 " 17, 1802.
Anna " 4 " 5, 1805; " James East.

The will of Isaac Jones, Sr., dated 1 Mo. 19, 1801, was proved at the October term of Knox County Court, 1801.

Jesse Jones married as his second wife, 10 Mo. 4, 1809, at Lost Creek Meetinghouse, Lydia Maulsby, daughter of John and Lydia (John) Maulsby. The family continued to live at Grassy Valley until 1814 when they obtained a certificate to remove to Wayne County, Indiana. The certificate, which was received at White Water Monthly Meeting, 4 Mo. 29, 1815, mentions Esther, Lydia, Jesse and Anna, children of Jesse and Hannah, and William C. and John M., children of Jesse and Lydia. Other children of Jesse and Lydia, born after the removal to Indiana, are named in "Genealogy of the Maulsby Family" as follows; Elvira, Lucinda, Pleasant, Sally Ann and David L.

Jesso Jones bought a farm near the present town of Economy. The family were members of New Garden Meeting until the establishment of Springfield Meeting in 1817. Jesse Jones was made an Overseer for the new meeting and was a member of one of the committees appointed for the setting up of Springfield Monthly Meeting in 1820. Lydia Jones was chosen to serve as an elder. Other references to Jesse and Lydia Jones in Springfield Monthly Meeting Minutes are as follows:

- 1831, 6, 18. Jesse Jones disowned for attending a Hicksite Meeting and aiding in appointing a meeting for them.
- 1844, 2, 17. Lydia Jones disowned for joining the Separatists (Anti-Slavery Friends).
- 1846, 5, 16. Lydia Jones reinstated in mbrp.
- 1859, 3, 19. Lydia Jones granted a certificate to Rocksylvania Monthly Meeting, Iowa.

Jesse Jones died (according to a memorandum left by his grandson, Thomas Marshall) in the Spring of 1834. Lydia Jones died May 6, 1864, in Guthrie County, Iowa. (Genealogy of the Maulsby Family).

James Frazier came to Guilford County from Warrington Monthly Meeting, Pa., as did the Jones' and Powels. The first mention of James Frazier in the minutes of New Garden Monthly Meeting is under date of 7 Mo. 27, 1765, when he presented a certificate from Warrington, dated 8 Mo. 7, 1762. Under date of 4 Mo. 26, 1766, New Garden minutes record the disownment of James Frazier and Martha Millikin, of Center Monthly Meeting, for marriage out of meeting. On 7 Mo. 28, 1781, James was granted a certificate of membership to Center Monthly Meeting. Martha Millikan is said to have been a daughter of William and Jane (White) Millikan. Some other children of William and Jane (White) Millikan were Sarah who married John Mills, 1 Mo. 28, 1761; Samuel who married Ann Baldwin, 6 Mo. 10, 1767; Mary who married Robert Bratton, 1 Mo. 6, 1763; Hannah who married Enos Blair, 5 Mo. 10, 1775.

Center Monthly Meeting records list the names of nine children of James and Martha Frazier, as follows:

Solomon	born	5	Mo. 13,	1766.
Hannah	"	4	Mo. 10,	1769.
William	"	3	Mo. 26,	1771.
Jane	"	3	Mo. 25,	1773.
Isaac	"	5	Mo. 2,	1775.
Abner	"	7	Mo. 14,	1777.
Sarah	"	3	Mo. 5,	1780.
Abigail	"	9	Mo. 25,	1782.
Enos	"	1	Mo. 12,	1785.

James Frazier's will (Guilford County Court Records) names his children in the same order as in Center records except that Hannah is omitted and an extra son, James, is added at the end of the list. The will is dated 10 Mo. 24, 1811. The fact that Hannah (Frazier) Jones had died five or six years prior to this date (see Lost Creek Monthly Meeting records, above) may account for the omission of her name in the will. Martha Frazier's will, dated 11 Mo. 14, 1825, is also on file in Guilford County. It mentions grand-daughter, Abigail Frazier, daughter of James Frazier, daughter, Abigail Ozment, and son, Enos Frazier.

Two deeds by which Jesse Jones disposed of farm land in Guilford County in 1794 and 1795 are signed by James Frazier as a witness.

Jesse Jones and Hannah Frazier both signed the certificate when Jane Mills, daughter of John and Sarah (Millikan) Mills, and John Davis were married at Center Meetinghouse, 10 Mo. 21, 1784; also Solomon Frazier. When Jesse and Hannah (Frazier) Jones moved to Tennessee they became members of Lost Creek Monthly Meeting, of which John and Sarah (Millikan) Mills and their family were members.
